

turbulence ON THE CAMPUS

JOHN EDGAR HOOVER

Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

NOT SO LONG AGO I talked to the mother of a college senior. She told me she was highly confused about the current wave of protest demonstrations by young people against United States policy in Vietnam, calls for civil disobedience, draft-card burnings, and attempts to stop troop trains.

"What is behind them?" she asked. "What should I as a parent do?"

This woman expressed a growing concern of thousands of parents in America today—parents who have not only sons and daughters in college but also children in high school and grade school. What does all this mean?

First of all, let me say that in my opinion today's rising generation is a generation of which America can be proud. According to the latest statistics, there are 4,500,000 full-time students enrolled in more than 2,000 institutions of higher learning. A high percentage of these young people are serious and concerned. They know they live in a world of change, challenge, and conflict, where their very best will be required. They are working hard, completely loyal to our traditions of free government and our belief in law and order.

However, this mother's fears are well grounded. There is in today's campus turbulence a new style in conspiracy—conspiracy that is extremely subtle and devious and hence difficult to understand. It is a conspiracy reflected by questionable moods and attitudes, by unrestrained individualism, by nonconformism in dress and speech, even by obscene language, rather than by formal membership in specific organizations.

Often called the New Left, this conspiracy has unloosed disrespect for the law, contempt for our institutions of free government, and disdain for spiritual and moral values. In extremist acts such as blocking railroad tracks, lying down on busy streets, and crudely sprawling in the offices of government officials, this movement has cynically exploited the idealism and deep convictions that do undoubtedly motivate many of the participants.

Freedom of speech, of dissent, and of petition are absolutely vital rights, necessary to the functioning of a democratic society. But when young people are urged to disobey a law they dislike, to participate in civil disobedience, these rights are betrayed. The great tragedy of the New Left is that the idealism of so many students—genuinely concerned about the dangers of our nuclear world, seeking a personal identity in an age of growing complexity and automation, searching for answers to the problems of a materially affluent nation—has been distorted or even lost in the maelstrom of the New Left's excesses.

As could be expected, the Moscow-oriented Communist Party, U.S.A., and its Red Chinese Communist rivals in this country—such as the Progressive Labor Party and its youth front, the May 2 Movement—are busily trying to exploit this student turbulence.

But in many respects the Communists are today reaping a harvest from what they, in part, helped to sow. In recent years the Communist Party, U.S.A., especially on campuses, has attempted to portray itself as a legitimate political party within the democratic tradition—which it is not. It has worked hard to project a new image of respectability, to make students feel that there is nothing wrong with Communism, that it is a legitimate element in today's pluralistic society, and that Americans should accept Communists as partners in dealing with the issues of the day.

In this effort to disarm students ideologically, the Communists are employing two major weapons: (1) a college speaking program and (2) a new front group for young people, the W. E. B. Du Bois clubs of America.

About four years ago the party launched a program of sending speakers to college campuses. Colleges and universities were inundated with literature saying that the party would be happy to supply speakers if desired. To date, party spokesmen have made more than 150 college appearances, with audiences ranging as high as 12,000. This was the first weapon.

The second was the establishment, at a convention in San Francisco in June 1964, of the Du Bois clubs. This group, though it claims to be "an independent association of young people," is dominated and controlled by the party. The clubs have been extremely effective for the party on campuses. Hiding their true parentage, they seek to contact young people, engage them in Marxist-type discussions, and encourage them to participate, under Du Bois direction, in protest demonstrations.

THE PARTY is also attempting, in its effort to disarm Americans ideologically, to promulgate the false doctrine that since Stalin's death Communism has changed—that it has been purged of its old-time discipline, terror, and automatic allegiance to Moscow, that the leopard has changed its spots.

As part of this argument, the Communists claim that Stalin "perverted" the original "humanitarianism" of Karl Marx. Scholars should now, the Communists say, "rediscover" Marx and his "love for humanity," realize that actually Communism is not an evil but the only solution to the world's problems. This has led to a growing concept of the nonparty Marxist, the theory that an individual can be intellectually or philosophically involved with Communism but still not be a member of the party. From the party's point of view, these so-called nonparty Marxists represent great power and are part of the 100,000 "state-of-mind" members Gus Hall, the party's general secretary, has mentioned in assessing party strength.

The party's pleasure over the growing interest in Marxist studies in the academic community is reflected in the comments published in the party's paper, The Worker, about a recent "socialist scholars' conference" in New York City. Reporting that there were "879 registered participants," The Worker added: "From beginning to end it was a ringing affirmation of a deep-seated conviction that socialism is the only answer to the crisis of our times—to the crisis of American society."

Then it added these words: "There is something new and basic taking place, and from it is also emerging a new current of socialist thought which offers great hope for the future."

NO WONDER the party is today highly optimistic. It is planning a national convention in the spring of 1966, the first since 1959. At a recent Chicago news conference Hall proudly announced that party membership had grown by "one or two thousand" in the last year. He added that the party was experiencing the greatest upsurge in its history.

The enthusiasm of the party, its feeling that a new era is dawning, is a significant factor in today's campus turbulence. The Communists are peddling their false doctrines among college students. Just recently Bettina Aptheker, a student at the University of California at Berkeley, publicly revealed that she was a party member. She is the daughter of Herbert Aptheker, well-known party official, lecturer, and writer. Miss Aptheker participated in demonstrations on that campus, was a Du Bois Club member, and has bitterly attacked American Vietnam policy.

Very interestingly, a few days after her announcement Miss Aptheker led all candidates in a University of California election to select a committee that would give advice on revising campus rules. In a field of seven undergraduates running for three positions on the committee, she was the top vote-getter. Unfortunately only 5,900 of the 27,000 students eligible voted. Later, in a public speech on the campus, she was given wide applause when she declared that her election is "the first time a Communist has been elected to an office in the United States since 1946."

At the core of the extremist elements of the New Left are doctrines of civil disobedience, disrespect for our constitutional processes, and a desire to revolt against our economic, political, and social system. One of the most active and vociferous groups in the New Left is the Students for a Democratic Society, many of whose members dress in beatnik style. Here are some typical comments heard at a recent meeting of this group:

"When we have this utopia where everybody only works two hours a day, the processes of redistribution of power and economy will take care of themselves."

"We are a socialist youth organ and consider ourselves a revolutionary organization whose members do not believe society can be reformed as it presently exists."

The Communist Party, U.S.A., and the Communist-spawned youth organization, the Du Bois clubs, which attempt to exploit the New Left, are being challenged by pro-Red Chinese groups. Although in many instances—for example, in preparing for a demonstration—the two rivals cooperate temporarily, they are bitter opponents.

The May 2 Movement, the youth front of the Progressive Labor Party, though small in numbers, is violently pro-Peking. It has frequently exhibited on campuses a film entitled Heroic Viet Nam 1963, a bitterly anti-American film reportedly made by the Viet Cong. Revealingly, on the campus of a West Coast university a Progressive Labor Party poster announced the holding of classes in "Marxism-Leninism, taught by Revolutionaries." The Trotskyite Socialist Workers Party and its youth group, the Young Socialist Alliance, are also involved in the campus turbulence.

AS PARENTS and teachers, you should know more about this new-style subversion that is erupting in civil disobedience and encouraging young people to mock the law. If the infection continues to spread, the foundations of our republic will be seriously jeopardized.

Every parent and every teacher must recognize the absolute need of instructing and guiding our young people to respect the law and to realize that freedom does not mean license, that with a citizen's rights go corresponding duties. Far too many students in the New Left are demanding what they believe are their rights but giving little or no thought to their responsibilities as citizens. Their goals are primarily to destroy and tear down rather than create a better society.

We want our young people to be good citizens, able to think for themselves and to have personal convictions. But we want them to be loyal to our constitutional principles and the democratic traditions that have molded this country.

We should accept this challenge to do an ever better job as Americans—because only in this way can we preserve freedom for all.

Student Radicals Scored By Princeton's Goheen

Special to Newark News

PRINCETON—Princeton President Robert F. Goheen made a guarded attack on student radicals in his baccalaureate address in the university chapel, yesterday morning.

He told 2,000 students, parents, alumni and faculty, that "Universities—and the idea of the university—face potent enemies in those who are willing to assert that their perceptions are so right as to justify any means."

Using the words "zealot," "fanatic" and "extremist," the Princeton president warned, "If we ourselves are not to be pushed into the gutter of extremism and violence, we need to be armed with courage, humility and level heads."

"I hope that part of the gift of your university experience has been the nourishment of these qualities in you."

Dr. Goheen opened his address, entitled "To Make A Better World," with a reference to the murders of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King. "None of us today can be other than deeply and anxiously aware of the fierce gales of contention sweeping through human affairs—of the passionate forces which blow up so swiftly to violence in men's lives—and which in our times seem determined to do so with rising frequency."

He also touched on the problem of communication between older and younger generations. "Both generations are too likely to respond not with an effort at communication, but sneers which, surely, are not the road to a better future."

Cut State Aid for Student Rebels

One cannot help but shed a tear and feel that tugging at the heart-strings for the poor students who have joined in campus rebellions and now face revocation of state scholarships they may hold. These "hippie" characters never had it so good yet they perform like a bunch of dim-witted idiots.

We only have to see what was done at Columbia and earlier at Berkeley and elsewhere where student long-hairs led protests along with pseudo-intellectual agitators to know that what the state legislature is in the process of doing is right. It's about time, as many have said, to put a halt to this.

One has to agree with Assemblyman Walter Smith, Burlington Republican and chief sponsor of the bill, when he argues that New Jersey "can't subsidize anyone who abuses the privileges we have given them." We cannot agree with the emotional stance of Assembly Majority Leader Peter Moraites of Bergen over this issue.

The measure, which passed the assembly Thursday by a 45-18 vote and was sent to the senate, would empower college authorities to revoke a student's scholarship after certifying that he willfully contributed to the disruption of a college or university. Mr. Moraites is concerned that there is no provision for a hearing. But, isn't the certification enough? Mr. Moraites' opposition is not substantive.

One facet of the measure, which certainly should be passed by the senate and signed by Gov. Richard J. Hughes, is the implicit indication that the legislature plans to take a firm stance in case student uprisings take place in New Jersey. The residents of this state, we are sure, have had about enough of all this "uprising" business.

Why should the state and its taxpayers help those who would disgrace it? Why should any money — the hard-earned money of taxpayers — go to support any long-hairs who scream obscenities and dump garbage and worse on the heads of policemen? It's about time a firm line were taken by the state legislature in this matter.

Of course, all kinds of excuses can be made for the students who rebel, but it is their decision, not that of the State of New Jersey. They're old enough to know wrong from right — and let's not forget about the phony "causes." Now, let's put anyone who has a state scholarship on warning not to "go off the deep end."

This is not an abrogation of freedom of education nor is it an insinuation into the processes of college life. It is, pure and simply, a move to crack down where such action is proper. There must be safeguards for the people whose money is being used. Again, we shed tears for those "rebel" students — don't you?

[REDACTED] members and sympathizers of the Students for a Democratic society (SDS) located on the campus at Princeton University.

b7D According to [REDACTED], SDS is the only new Left organization presently on the Princeton University Campus. The present membership is estimated at 150 members with approximately 200 sympathizers. The campus is comprised of around 4,700 students.

[REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] SDS at Princeton University is probably [REDACTED] who was recently elected to the SDS Steering Committee of the N.Y. Regional Chapters. He is very active in SDS matters at Princeton University. Another [REDACTED].

On 10/23/67, about 40 persons representing the SDS Chapter at Princeton University caused the entrance to the Institute for Defense Analysis (IDA) Princeton, N.J., to be blocked. IDA is located directly adjacent to the Princeton University Campus. It has classified contracts and the SDS Chapter was objecting to its presence on the campus. IDA is also aiding the U.S. Government war effort.

necessary for the Princeton Police to physically remove and arrest 31 demonstrators who were charged as disorderly persons. Both [] and [] were in the group arrested.

The 1967 SDS Chapter participated in the picketing of job interviews by a Dow Chemical representative seeking employees for the company. The demonstration was orderly and no incidents occurred.

b7D

[] said that in early May, 1968, an SDS sponsored march on Nassau Hall which is Princeton University's main admin building was held. The purpose of this demonstration was to protest the school administration's inactivity on student demands. The march confronted university authorities with a call for a restructuring of Princeton's decision-making process, now controlled exclusively by the trustees.

b7D

[] advised that other than the arrests in October, there has been no violence or campus disruptive activities. He said there is no known outside influence on the SDS Chapter. He is of the opinion it is viewed upon by most the faculty members as a necessary evil.

A SPECIAL REVIEW COMMITTEE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE IS CONDUCTING A SURVEY OF A NUMBER OF OUR DISCONTINUED COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAMS (COINTELPROS). THE PURPOSE OF THE DEPARTMENTAL REVIEW IS TO ASCERTAIN WHETHER OR NOT CERTAIN TARGETS SHOULD BE NOTIFIED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF THE COINTELPRO ACTIONS WHICH WERE CONDUCTED AGAINST THEM. THE COMMITTEE, AS A RESULT OF A PRELIMINARY REVIEW OF THE VARIOUS ACTIONS IN THE COINTELPRO NOTIFICATION PROGRAM, HAS REQUESTED THE FOLLOWING ADDITIONAL INFORMATION BE OBTAINED FROM YOUR OFFICE.

REFERENCED AIRTELS REFER TO THE MAILING OF 150 COPIES OF A PAMPHLET DEPICTING CERTAIN SDS MEMBERS AT PRINCETON UNIVER-SITY AS BEING AKIN TO APES. THE ABOVE COMMITTEE DESIRES TO BE FURNISHED COPIES OF THIS PAMPHLET SO AS TO DETERMINE IF A SPECIFIC INDIVIDUAL WAS RIDICULED. ABOVE COMMITTEE ALSO

RE: BUREAU NITEL, 4/26/76. NEWARK AIRTEL TO BUREAU,
9/19/68. BUREAU AIRTEL, 9/24/68

NEWARK FILES REVEAL THAT PAMPHLET MENTIONED IN REFERENCED BUREAU NITEL WAS NEVER RETAINED BY NEWARK AND THEREFORE, IS NOT AVAILABLE. A REVIEW OF NEWARK FILES REFLECTS THAT IT WAS CLEARLY INTENDED THAT 50 COPIES OF THIS PAMPHLET WERE TO BE MAILED TO [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], AND ONE COPY TO EACH OF THE TEN
INDIVIDUALS LISTED ON PAGE TWO OF REFERENCED NEWARK AIRTEL, SEPTEMBER 19, 1968; HOWEVER, SERIOUS DOUBT EXISTS THAT THESE PAMPHLETS WERE IN FACT EVER MAILED. BUREAU AUTHORITY TO MAIL
ABOVE MENTIONED PAMPHLETS WAS RECEIVED IN THE NEWARK OFFICE
ON SEPTEMBER 25, 1968. THE MECHANICS OF THE MAILING OF THESE PAMPHLETS WAS THAT THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN FORWARDED TO A RESIDENT AGENCY FOR MAILING FROM VARIOUS PLACES WITHIN THE PRINCETON AREA. THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE THAT THE RESIDENT AGENCY COULD HAVE RECEIVED THIS MAILING WOULD HAVE BEEN SEPTEMBER 26, 1968,

BUT IT IS MORE REALISTIC TO ASSUME THAT THIS MAILING WAS RECEIVED ON SEPTMEBER 27, 1968. INASMUCH AS THE PAMPHLETS WERE INTENDED FOR [REDACTED] TO DISTRIBUTE AT A CLUB MEETING ON SEPTEMBER 27, 1968, IT WOULD HAVE BEEN UNREALISTIC TO ASSUME THAT THESE PAMPHLETS COULD HAVE BEEN MAILED IN TIME FOR [REDACTED] TO RECEIVE THEM IN TIME FOR HER MEETING. IT IS BELIEVED ENTIRELY POSSIBLE THAT RESPONSIBLE PERSONNEL AT THE RESIDENT AGENCY REALIZING THE FUTILITY OF MAILING THESE PAMPHLETS AT THAT LATE DATE ABORTED THE ENTIRE PLAN; HOWEVER, INQUIRIES HAVE REVEALED THAT IN VIEW OF THE TIME ELAPSED AND THE PERSONNEL TURNOVER, NO ONE IS AVAILABLE WHO CAN FURNISH ANY INFORMATION WHATSOEVER REGARDING THE ACCURATE ACTION TAKEN IN THIS MATTER..

ReBuairtel requested that Newark files 100-46426 (SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY, IS-SWP, DISRUPTION PROGRAM - Bufile 100-436291), and 100-50166 (COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM, IS - DISRUPTION OF NEW LEFT - Bufile 100-449698,) be transmitted to the Bureau for review by Departmental Attorney [REDACTED]. In the alternative, reairtel stated that Newark could forward copies of all serials contained in these files. Newark elected to send both files in their entirety rather than to send xerox copies inasmuch as both files are closed and are not needed in current investigations.

The Bureau Supervisor making the request conveyed in reairtel is [REDACTED] of the Legal Counsel Division.
